Lesson 6.09 · Who's Behind This Page? Learning to Read Sideways

Thin sheet, on purpose. Level 6 lessons are reading-and-thinking lessons built on a long text, and the text is in the app. This sheet carries only the lesson's word list and writing task from the course data. Words here are not limited to taught sounds, because Level 1 to 4 already taught them all.
Goal: Learn lateral reading — the practice of leaving a page to check who's behind it, before deciding whether to trust it — through a worked example and a guided practice scenario.

1 Words from this lesson read each word, say what it means credible

believable, worthy of trust, because of good evidence or a trustworthy source sponsored paid for by a company or organization, usually to promote a product, service, or point of view, even when it's

2 Write

Using the three lateral-reading habits from today's text, write 4–6 sentences explaining what you would do before deciding whether to trust or donate to this site — not what you think of the site emotionally, but the concrete steps you'd take.

GROWN-UP TIP Read the words together, then ask what each one means. Let your learner write in their own words. Do not rush: a few good sentences beat a full page. Five minutes is plenty: stop while it is still fun. Cheer for trying, not just for being right.

My progress ☐ I read the words ☐ I can say what they mean ☐ I wrote my sentence

Days I practised: ◯ ◯ ◯ ◯ ◯

Words come straight from the course lesson file. Not checked for sound-by-sound decodability: Levels 5-7 read whole words and word parts.
