Thin sheet, on purpose. Level 7 lessons are reading-and-thinking lessons built on a long text, and the text is in the app. This sheet carries only the lesson's word list and writing task from the course data. Words here are not limited to taught sounds, because Level 1 to 4 already taught them all.
Goal: Learn the historian's third move — corroboration: reading further independent accounts of the same event, applying the SAME sourcing template to each one (not just the first document you meet), and seeing where accounts agree, disagree, and where the disagreement itself is the most important finding

1 Words from this lesson read each word, say what it means

Discrepancy

a difference or disagreement between two accounts of the same thing

Involved witness

a witness who was not just watching but did something during the event themselves (intervened, was struck, str

2 Write

Write a short paragraph (6–8 sentences): using the corroboration table, explain what you can now say with confidence about the night of March 5, 1770, what remains uncertain, and why reading Palmes' own testimony directly (rather than a single narrated summary) changed your readi

GROWN-UP TIP Read the words together, then ask what each one means. Let your learner write in their own words. Do not rush: a few good sentences beat a full page. Five minutes is plenty: stop while it is still fun. Cheer for trying, not just for being right.

Words come straight from the course lesson file. Not checked for sound-by-sound decodability: Levels 5-7 read whole words and word parts.
