Thin sheet, on purpose. Level 7 lessons are reading-and-thinking lessons built on a long text, and the text is in the app. This sheet carries only the lesson's word list and writing task from the course data. Words here are not limited to taught sounds, because Level 1 to 4 already taught them all.
Goal: Combine two opposing op-eds into one written answer that represents both sides fairly and states, specifically, where they actually disagree — not just "some people think X, others think Y."

combining information or viewpoints from more than one source into a new, coherent underst

Represent fairly

describing an opposing view the way its strongest supporter would recognize it, even if yo

Point of disagreement

the specific claim, fact, or value judgment where two sources actually part ways — as dist

2 Write

Write a synthesis paragraph (7–10 sentences) that: states what both essays agree on; states the specific, narrow point of disagreement; names what kind of disagreement it is; represents each side's strongest point fairly (in your own words, not a straw man); and ends with your ow

GROWN-UP TIP Read the words together, then ask what each one means. Let your learner write in their own words. Do not rush: a few good sentences beat a full page. Five minutes is plenty: stop while it is still fun. Cheer for trying, not just for being right.
