Thin sheet, on purpose. Level 7 lessons are reading-and-thinking lessons built on a long text, and the text is in the app. This sheet carries only the lesson's word list and writing task from the course data. Words here are not limited to taught sounds, because Level 1 to 4 already taught them all.
Goal: Recognize when a first-person narrator's account of events can't be fully trusted, and read a short poem for figurative meaning, sound, and compression (saying a lot in very few words).

1 Words from this lesson read each word, say what it means

Unreliable narrator
a first-person narrator whose account the reader has reason to doubt — because they're lyi

Connotation
the feelings and associations a word carries beyond its literal dictionary meaning figurative language

tone

situational irony

2 Write

Choose one: (a) rewrite the garbage-bin Thursday as a neutral, third-person, reliable news-brief version of events (3–4 sentences) — strip out every unreliable framing word; or (b) write your own 3–4 line poem using one concrete, physical image (not an abstract feeling-word) to c

GROWN-UP TIP Read the words together, then ask what each one means. Let your learner write in their own words. Do not rush: a few good sentences beat a full page. Five minutes is plenty: stop while it is still fun. Cheer for trying, not just for being right.

Words come straight from the course lesson file. Not checked for sound-by-sound decodability: Levels 5-7 read whole words and word parts.
