

SOUND OUT · PRACTICE SHEET

Lesson 7.01 · Orientation & Baseline: What "Advanced Reader" Means

Level 7 reading lesson

Level 7

Name _____

Date _____

Thin sheet, on purpose. Level 7 lessons are reading-and-thinking lessons built on a long text, and the text is in the app. This sheet carries only the lesson's word list and writing task from the course data. Words here are not limited to taught sounds, because Level 1 to 4 already taught them all.
Goal: Understand the Level 7 finish line in concrete terms; take a baseline stamina/speed reading; meet the academic-vocabulary routine that runs through the whole level.

1 Words from this lesson

read each word, say what it means

Infer

to work out something not directly stated, using clues plus what you already know

Corroborate

to confirm something using an independent, separate source

Bias

a leaning toward one side, often invisible to the person who has it, that shapes what they

2 Write

In 4–6 sentences: pick ONE of the four "rooms" you already do some version of in real life (you compare prices before buying something = data reading; you decide whether to trust a stranger's online review = source credibility) and describe, honestly, one specific time your insti

GROWN-UP TIP Read the words together, then ask what each one means. Let your learner write in their own words. Do not rush: a few good sentences beat a full page. Five minutes is plenty: stop while it is still fun. Cheer for trying, not just for being right.

My progress ☐ I read the words ☐ I can say what they mean ☐ I wrote my sentence

Days I practised: ◯ ◯ ◯ ◯ ◯

Words come straight from the course lesson file. Not checked for sound-by-sound decodability: Levels 5-7 read whole words and word parts.

SOUND OUT · PRACTICE SHEET

Lesson 7.02 · Reading Like a Historian I: Sourcing & Contextualizing

Level 7 reading lesson

Level 7

Name _____

Date _____

Thin sheet, on purpose. Level 7 lessons are reading-and-thinking lessons built on a long text, and the text is in the app. This sheet carries only the lesson's word list and writing task from the course data. Words here are not limited to taught sounds, because Level 1 to 4 already taught them all.
Goal: Learn the historian's first two moves — sourcing (who made this, what's their stake?) and contextualizing (what was happening around this moment?) — using TWO competing visual sources compared against each other, then a written primary sour

1 Words from this lesson

read each word, say what it means

Deposition
a formal, sworn written statement about what someone saw or knows, usually given as part o

Primary source
a firsthand account or original document (or image) from the time and place being studied

infer

corroborate

bias

2 Write

Write a short paragraph (5–7 sentences): compare the visual sources (1/1b) and the written source (2) on the one factual question both address (was there a clear order, in one coordinated volley, or not) — name each source's likely bias and what each stood to gain from its versio

GROWN-UP TIP Read the words together, then ask what each one means. Let your learner write in their own words. Do not rush: a few good sentences beat a full page. Five minutes is plenty: stop while it is still fun. Cheer for trying, not just for being right.

My progress ☐ I read the words ☐ I can say what they mean ☐ I wrote my sentence

Days I practised: ◯ ◯ ◯ ◯ ◯

Words come straight from the course lesson file. Not checked for sound-by-sound decodability: Levels 5-7 read whole words and word parts.

SOUND OUT · PRACTICE SHEET

Lesson 7.03 · Reading Like a Historian II: Corroboration

Level 7 reading lesson

Level 7

Name _____

Date _____

Thin sheet, on purpose. Level 7 lessons are reading-and-thinking lessons built on a long text, and the text is in the app. This sheet carries only the lesson's word list and writing task from the course data. Words here are not limited to taught sounds, because Level 1 to 4 already taught them all.
Goal: Learn the historian's third move — corroboration: reading further independent accounts of the same event, applying the SAME sourcing template to each one (not just the first document you meet), and seeing where accounts agree, disagree, and where the disagreement itself is the most important finding

1 Words from this lesson

read each word, say what it means

Discrepancy

a difference or disagreement between two accounts of the same thing

Involved witness

a witness who was not just watching but did something during the event themselves (intervened, was struck, str

2 Write

Write a short paragraph (6–8 sentences): using the corroboration table, explain what you can now say with confidence about the night of March 5, 1770, what remains uncertain, and why reading Palmes' own testimony directly (rather than a single narrated summary) changed your readi

GROWN-UP TIP Read the words together, then ask what each one means. Let your learner write in their own words. Do not rush: a few good sentences beat a full page. Five minutes is plenty: stop while it is still fun. Cheer for trying, not just for being right.

My progress ☐ I read the words ☐ I can say what they mean ☐ I wrote my sentence

Days I practised: ◯ ◯ ◯ ◯ ◯

Words come straight from the course lesson file. Not checked for sound-by-sound decodability: Levels 5-7 read whole words and word parts.

SOUND OUT · PRACTICE SHEET

Lesson 7.04 · Reading a Science Article I: Claim, Method, Sample Size

Level 7 reading lesson

Level 7

Name _____

Date _____

Thin sheet, on purpose. Level 7 lessons are reading-and-thinking lessons built on a long text, and the text is in the app. This sheet carries only the lesson's word list and writing task from the course data. Words here are not limited to taught sounds, because Level 1 to 4 already taught them all.
Goal: Learn to pull apart a science write-up into its actual claim, the method used to test it, and the sample size — and notice when a headline overstates what the study behind it found.

1 Words from this lesson

read each word, say what it means

Methodology
the specific method a study used: who/what was tested, how, for how lo

Sample size
how many people, animals, or items were actually studied. A small samp

Peer review before serious scientific journals publish a study, other scientists i

deposition

primary source

corroborate

2 Write

Write a paragraph (5–7 sentences) rewriting the headline and the first sentence of the article so they accurately reflect the study's actual size and method — without pretending the finding is meaningless. Use methodology and sample size correctly at least once each.

GROWN-UP TIP Read the words together, then ask what each one means. Let your learner write in their own words. Do not rush: a few good sentences beat a full page. Five minutes is plenty: stop while it is still fun. Cheer for trying, not just for being right.

My progress ☐ I read the words ☐ I can say what they mean ☐ I wrote my sentence

Days I practised: ◯ ◯ ◯ ◯ ◯

SOUND OUT · PRACTICE SHEET

Lesson 7.05 · Reading a Science Article II: Correlation vs. Causation & Data in Text

Level 7 reading lesson

Level 7

Name _____

Date _____

Thin sheet, on purpose. Level 7 lessons are reading-and-thinking lessons built on a long text, and the text is in the app. This sheet carries only the lesson's word list and writing task from the course data. Words here are not limited to taught sounds, because Level 1 to 4 already taught them all.

Goal: Tell the difference between "two things happen together" and "one causes the other"; read a percentage, a described graph, or a statistic used inside an argument and judge whether it actually supports the claim built on top of it.

1 Words from this lesson

read each word, say what it means

Correlation

when two things tend to change together (as one goes up, the other tends to go up or down too)

Causation

when one thing actually makes the other happen. Establishing causation usually needs a controlled experiment,

2 Write

Write a paragraph (5–7 sentences): pick either the ice-cream/drowning or speed-camera example and explain what would need to be true for the causal claim to actually be well-supported (e.g., a controlled trial: cameras installed on some streets and not others, similar in every ot

GROWN-UP TIP Read the words together, then ask what each one means. Let your learner write in their own words. Do not rush: a few good sentences beat a full page. Five minutes is plenty: stop while it is still fun. Cheer for trying, not just for being right.

My progress ☐ I read the words ☐ I can say what they mean ☐ I wrote my sentence

Days I practised: ◯ ◯ ◯ ◯ ◯

Words come straight from the course lesson file. Not checked for sound-by-sound decodability: Levels 5-7 read whole words and word parts.

Sound Out · free, offline, no account · prints on A4 or US Letter · black and white is fine

SOUND OUT · PRACTICE SHEET

Lesson 7.06 · Reading an Argumentative Essay: Claim, Reasons, Evidence, Counterargument

Level 7 reading lesson

Level 7

Name _____

Date _____

Thin sheet, on purpose. Level 7 lessons are reading-and-thinking lessons built on a long text, and the text is in the app. This sheet carries only the lesson's word list and writing task from the course data. Words here are not limited to taught sounds, because Level 1 to 4 already taught them all.

Goal: Map an op-ed into its working parts — the claim, the reasons given, the evidence behind each reason, and whether it engages a real counterargument or dodges one.

1 Words from this lesson

read each word, say what it means

Claim
the main position an argument is trying to convince you of. Everything

Counterargument
the strongest opposing view, stated fairly, before the writer responds

Rebuttal
the writer's specific response to the counterargument — not just repea

correlation

causation

confounding variable

2 Write

Write a paragraph (6–8 sentences) mapping the essay: claim, reason 1 + its evidence, reason 2 + its evidence, the counterargument named, and whether the rebuttal actually answers it. End with your own one-sentence judgment: is this a well-supported argument, a partially-supported

GROWN-UP TIP Read the words together, then ask what each one means. Let your learner write in their own words. Do not rush: a few good sentences beat a full page. Five minutes is plenty: stop while it is still fun. Cheer for trying, not just for being right.

My progress ☐ I read the words ☐ I can say what they mean ☐ I wrote my sentence

Days I practised: ◯ ◯ ◯ ◯ ◯

SOUND OUT · PRACTICE SHEET

Lesson 7.07 · Argument Evaluation: Logical Fallacies & Evidence Strength

Level 7 reading lesson

Level 7

Name _____

Date _____

Thin sheet, on purpose. Level 7 lessons are reading-and-thinking lessons built on a long text, and the text is in the app. This sheet carries only the lesson's word list and writing task from the course data. Words here are not limited to taught sounds, because Level 1 to 4 already taught them all.
Goal: Name six common logical fallacies and spot them in a real-feeling argument; rank evidence from strong to weak inside one essay.

1 Words from this lesson

read each word, say what it means

Straw man

misrepresenting an opponent's argument as weaker or more extreme than

Ad hominem

attacking the person making an argument instead of the argument itself

False dilemma

presenting only two options when more exist

Slippery slope

claiming one step will inevitably lead to an extreme, unlikely chain o

Appeal to popularity (bandwagon) claiming something is true or right because many people believe it

Appeal to authority (misused) citing an authority who is not actually an expert on the specific clai

2 Write

Write a paragraph (6–8 sentences) naming three fallacies you found (name the fallacy + quote it), then state, separately, what a genuinely strong version of this argument would need (e.g., actual outcome data — test scores, graduation rates — from real four-day districts compared

GROWN-UP TIP Read the words together, then ask what each one means. Let your learner write in their own words. Do not rush: a few good sentences beat a full page. Five minutes is plenty: stop while it is still fun. Cheer for trying, not just for being right.

My progress ☐ I read the words ☐ I can say what they mean ☐ I wrote my sentence

Days I practised: ◯ ◯ ◯ ◯ ◯

Words come straight from the course lesson file. Not checked for sound-by-sound decodability: Levels 5-7 read whole words and word parts.

SOUND OUT · PRACTICE SHEET

Lesson 7.08 · Lateral Reading & Source Credibility

Level 7 reading lesson

Level 7

Name _____

Date _____

Thin sheet, on purpose. Level 7 lessons are reading-and-thinking lessons built on a long text, and the text is in the app. This sheet carries only the lesson's word list and writing task from the course data. Words here are not limited to taught sounds, because Level 1 to 4 already taught them all.
Goal: Practice the single most important habit found missing in the Stanford History Education Group's national study of student online reasoning: actually leaving the page to check who's behind it, on a real organization, before trusting what it

1 Words from this lesson

read each word, say what it means

Lateral reading

instead of staying on a webpage and judging it only by how it looks ("vertical" reading, t

Credible

worthy of belief because of a track record of accuracy, transparency about sources, and ac

Conflict of interest

a hidden or undisclosed financial or personal stake that could bias an organization's or p

2 Write

Write a paragraph (5–7 sentences): describe what you found searching Target A and Target B, and what changed between your first impression (reading each site's own "About" section) and your lateral-read impression (reading independent sources about them). Use lateral reading and

GROWN-UP TIP Read the words together, then ask what each one means. Let your learner write in their own words. Do not rush: a few good sentences beat a full page. Five minutes is plenty: stop while it is still fun. Cheer for trying, not just for being right.

My progress ☐ I read the words ☐ I can say what they mean ☐ I wrote my sentence

Days I practised: ◯ ◯ ◯ ◯ ◯

Words come straight from the course lesson file. Not checked for sound-by-sound decodability: Levels 5-7 read whole words and word parts.

Sound Out · free, offline, no account · prints on A4 or US Letter · black and white is fine

SOUND OUT · PRACTICE SHEET

Lesson 7.09 · Reading a Contract, Policy, or Terms of Service

Level 7 reading lesson

Level 7

Name _____

Date _____

Thin sheet, on purpose. Level 7 lessons are reading-and-thinking lessons built on a long text, and the text is in the app. This sheet carries only the lesson's word list and writing task from the course data. Words here are not limited to taught sounds, because Level 1 to 4 already taught them all.
Goal: Read a lease and an app's terms of service closely enough to state what you're actually agreeing to, what conditions apply, and what's buried in the fine print.

1 Words from this lesson

read each word, say what it means

Obligation

something you are required to do under the agreement (pay rent by the 1st; give 30 days' notice)

Clause

one specific section or provision of a contract, usually addressing one issue. Contracts are read clause by cl

Waive

to voluntarily give up a right you would otherwise have

2 Write

Write a paragraph (6–8 sentences): pick the lease OR the app terms, and explain, as if to a friend about to sign, the two things they most need to know that aren't obvious from a casual read. Use obligation, clause, and waive correctly at least once each.

GROWN-UP TIP Read the words together, then ask what each one means. Let your learner write in their own words. Do not rush: a few good sentences beat a full page. Five minutes is plenty: stop while it is still fun. Cheer for trying, not just for being right.

My progress ☐ I read the words ☐ I can say what they mean ☐ I wrote my sentence

Days I practised: ◯ ◯ ◯ ◯ ◯

Words come straight from the course lesson file. Not checked for sound-by-sound decodability: Levels 5-7 read whole words and word parts.

SOUND OUT · PRACTICE SHEET

Lesson 7.10 · Synthesis I: Two Sources, Contrasting Viewpoints

Level 7 reading lesson

Level 7

Name _____

Date _____

Thin sheet, on purpose. Level 7 lessons are reading-and-thinking lessons built on a long text, and the text is in the app. This sheet carries only the lesson's word list and writing task from the course data. Words here are not limited to taught sounds, because Level 1 to 4 already taught them all.
Goal: Combine two opposing op-eds into one written answer that represents both sides fairly and states, specifically, where they actually disagree — not just "some people think X, others think Y."

1 Words from this lesson

read each word, say what it means

Synthesis

combining information or viewpoints from more than one source into a new, coherent underst

Represent fairly describing an opposing view the way its strongest supporter would recognize it, even if yo

Point of disagreement

the specific claim, fact, or value judgment where two sources actually part ways — as dist

2 Write

Write a synthesis paragraph (7–10 sentences) that: states what both essays agree on; states the specific, narrow point of disagreement; names what kind of disagreement it is; represents each side's strongest point fairly (in your own words, not a straw man); and ends with your ow

GROWN-UP TIP Read the words together, then ask what each one means. Let your learner write in their own words. Do not rush: a few good sentences beat a full page. Five minutes is plenty: stop while it is still fun. Cheer for trying, not just for being right.

My progress ☐ I read the words ☐ I can say what they mean ☐ I wrote my sentence

Days I practised: ◯ ◯ ◯ ◯ ◯

Words come straight from the course lesson file. Not checked for sound-by-sound decodability: Levels 5-7 read whole words and word parts.

Sound Out · free, offline, no account · prints on A4 or US Letter · black and white is fine

SOUND OUT · PRACTICE SHEET

Lesson 7.11 · Synthesis II: 3–4 Sources, One Research Question

Level 7 reading lesson

Level 7

Name _____

Date _____

Thin sheet, on purpose. Level 7 lessons are reading-and-thinking lessons built on a long text, and the text is in the app. This sheet carries only the lesson's word list and writing task from the course data. Words here are not limited to taught sounds, because Level 1 to 4 already taught them all.
Goal: The capstone disciplinary-reading task — read four mixed-genre sources (a data summary, a historical document excerpt, a science-style study summary, and an op-ed) on one real question, apply the right discipline-specific move to each, and synthesize all four into one answer.

1 Words from this lesson

read each word, say what it means

Triangulate

to check a claim against three (or more) different kinds of evidence, from independent angles, the way a surve

Weight of evidence not every source deserves equal trust; a reader has to judge how much each source should count based on what i

2 Write

Write two or three sentences about what you read today.

GROWN-UP TIP Read the words together, then ask what each one means. Let your learner write in their own words. Do not rush: a few good sentences beat a full page. Five minutes is plenty: stop while it is still fun. Cheer for trying, not just for being right.

My progress ☐ I read the words ☐ I can say what they mean ☐ I wrote my sentence

Days I practised: ◯ ◯ ◯ ◯ ◯

SOUND OUT · PRACTICE SHEET

Lesson 7.12 · Literary Reading I: Figurative Language, Tone, and Irony

Level 7 reading lesson

Level 7

Name _____

Date _____

Thin sheet, on purpose. Level 7 lessons are reading-and-thinking lessons built on a long text, and the text is in the app. This sheet carries only the lesson's word list and writing task from the course data. Words here are not limited to taught sounds, because Level 1 to 4 already taught them all.
Goal: Read a short story for what it means beyond its literal events — figurative language, the writer's tone, and irony (when what happens is the opposite of what's expected, or what a character believes is the opposite of what's true).

1 Words from this lesson

read each word, say what it means

Figurative language

language that means something beyond its literal words: metaphor ("her heart was a locked

Tone

the writer's attitude toward the subject, created through word choice, sentence length, an

Irony (situational)

when the actual outcome of events is the opposite of what was expected or intended — diffe

2 Write

Write a paragraph (5–7 sentences): explain how the phone-call detail in paragraph 2 ("called on Sundays… entirely full") is doing double duty — it establishes the surface story AND plants the clue the ending depends on. Use figurative language, tone, and irony correctly at leas

GROWN-UP TIP Read the words together, then ask what each one means. Let your learner write in their own words. Do not rush: a few good sentences beat a full page. Five minutes is plenty: stop while it is still fun. Cheer for trying, not just for being right.

My progress ☐ I read the words ☐ I can say what they mean ☐ I wrote my sentence

Days I practised: ◯ ◯ ◯ ◯ ◯

Words come straight from the course lesson file. Not checked for sound-by-sound decodability: Levels 5-7 read whole words and word parts.

SOUND OUT · PRACTICE SHEET

Lesson 7.13 · Literary Reading II: Unreliable Narrator & Poetry

Level 7 reading lesson

Level 7

Name _____

Date _____

Thin sheet, on purpose. Level 7 lessons are reading-and-thinking lessons built on a long text, and the text is in the app. This sheet carries only the lesson's word list and writing task from the course data. Words here are not limited to taught sounds, because Level 1 to 4 already taught them all.
Goal: Recognize when a first-person narrator's account of events can't be fully trusted, and read a short poem for figurative meaning, sound, and compression (saying a lot in very few words).

1 Words from this lesson

read each word, say what it means

Unreliable narrator
a first-person narrator whose account the reader has reason to doubt — because they're lyi

Connotation
the feelings and associations a word carries beyond its literal dictionary meaning

figurative language

tone

situational irony

2 Write

Choose one: (a) rewrite the garbage-bin Thursday as a neutral, third-person, reliable news-brief version of events (3–4 sentences) — strip out every unreliable framing word; or (b) write your own 3–4 line poem using one concrete, physical image (not an abstract feeling-word) to c

GROWN-UP TIP Read the words together, then ask what each one means. Let your learner write in their own words. Do not rush: a few good sentences beat a full page. Five minutes is plenty: stop while it is still fun. Cheer for trying, not just for being right.

My progress ☐ I read the words ☐ I can say what they mean ☐ I wrote my sentence

Days I practised: ◯ ◯ ◯ ◯ ◯

Words come straight from the course lesson file. Not checked for sound-by-sound decodability: Levels 5-7 read whole words and word parts.

SOUND OUT · PRACTICE SHEET

Lesson 7.14 · Reading Stamina & Speed; Course Capstone Bridge

Level 7 reading lesson

Level 7

Name _____

Date _____

Thin sheet, on purpose. Level 7 lessons are reading-and-thinking lessons built on a long text, and the text is in the app. This sheet carries only the lesson's word list and writing task from the course data. Words here are not limited to taught sounds, because Level 1 to 4 already taught them all.
Goal: Practice choosing your reading speed on purpose — skim, scan, or deep-read — and sustain a long stretch of deep reading with comprehension; review the level before the mastery check.

1 Words from this lesson

read each word, say what it means

Skim
moving quickly over a whole text to get the general shape/gist (what's this about, roughly

Scan
moving quickly through a text looking for one specific piece of information (a date, a nam

Deep reading slow, careful, often reread reading, aimed at full comprehension of a dense or important p

unreliable narrator

connotation

2 Write

Write a paragraph (5–7 sentences) naming one real structural decision in your own life you'd change, using present bias correctly, and stating specifically what environmental change (not a willpower resolution) would remove the in-the-moment choice.

GROWN-UP TIP Read the words together, then ask what each one means. Let your learner write in their own words. Do not rush: a few good sentences beat a full page. Five minutes is plenty: stop while it is still fun. Cheer for trying, not just for being right.

My progress ☐ I read the words ☐ I can say what they mean ☐ I wrote my sentence

Days I practised: ◯ ◯ ◯ ◯ ◯

Words come straight from the course lesson file. Not checked for sound-by-sound decodability: Levels 5-7 read whole words and word parts.