Thin sheet, on purpose. Level 6 lessons are reading-and-thinking lessons built on a long text, and the text is in the app. This sheet carries only the lesson's word list and writing task from the course data. Words here are not limited to taught sounds, because Level 1 to 4 already taught them all.
Goal: Read and discuss an original text on the Mughal Empire's rise and its transition to British colonial rule, independently running the reciprocal-teaching routine, reviewing cause/effect and sequence structure, and completing a comprehensive syntax review (all 4 foci, one sentence each).

In 4–6 sentences, explain the chain of cause and effect that led from Mughal decline to the start of British Crown rule in 1858. Use at least one connective from the text (because, as a result, meanwhile).

GROWN-UP TIP Read the words together, then ask what each one means. Let your learner write in their own words. Do not rush: a few good sentences beat a full page. Five minutes is plenty: stop while it is still fun. Cheer for trying, not just for being right.
