Thin sheet, on purpose. Level 7 lessons are reading-and-thinking lessons built on a long text, and the text is in the app. This sheet carries only the lesson's word list and writing task from the course data. Words here are not limited to taught sounds, because Level 1 to 4 already taught them all.

Goal: Map an op-ed into its working parts — the claim, the reasons given, the evidence behind each reason, and whether it engages a real counterargument or dodges one.

1 Words from this lesson read each word, say what it means

Claim
the main position an argument is trying to convince you of. Everything

Counterargument
the strongest opposing view, stated fairly, before the writer responds

Rebuttal
the writer's specific response to the counterargument — not just repea correlation

causation

confounding variable

2 Write

Write a paragraph (6–8 sentences) mapping the essay: claim, reason 1 + its evidence, reason 2 + its evidence, the counterargument named, and whether the rebuttal actually answers it. End with your own one-sentence judgment: is this a well-supported argument, a partially-supported GROWN-UP TIP Read the words together, then ask what each one means. Let your learner write in their own words. Do not rush: a few good sentences beat a full page. Five minutes is plenty: stop while it is still fun. Cheer for trying, not just for being right.

My progress ☐ I read the words ☐ I can say what they mean ☐ I wrote my sentence

Words come straight from the course lesson file. Not checked for sound-by-sound decodability: Levels 5-7 read whole words and word parts.
