Thin sheet, on purpose. Level 7 lessons are reading-and-thinking lessons built on a long text, and the text is in the app. This sheet carries only the lesson's word list and writing task from the course data. Words here are not limited to taught sounds, because Level 1 to 4 already taught them all.
Goal: Read a short story for what it means beyond its literal events — figurative language, the writer's tone, and irony (when what happens is the opposite of what's expected, or what a character believes is the opposite of what's true).

1 Words from this lesson read each word, say what it means

Figurative language

language that means something beyond its literal words: metaphor ("her heart was a locked

Tone

the writer's attitude toward the subject, created through word choice, sentence length, an

Irony (situational)

when the actual outcome of events is the opposite of what was expected or intended — diffe

2 Write

Write a paragraph (5–7 sentences): explain how the phone-call detail in paragraph 2 ("called on Sundays… entirely full") is doing double duty — it establishes the surface story AND plants the clue the ending depends on. Use figurative language, tone, and irony correctly at leas

GROWN-UP TIP Read the words together, then ask what each one means. Let your learner write in their own words. Do not rush: a few good sentences beat a full page. Five minutes is plenty: stop while it is still fun. Cheer for trying, not just for being right.
