4 Read the sentences

point under each word with your finger

Jane has a cane. Kate has a cape. I made a cake.

5 Heart words

new today

once only

Heart words have a tricky part. The ♥ shows the letters that break the usual sounds. Learn them by heart.

6 Write

trace the new letters, then write a word the grown-up says

a-e

Grown-up says: made cake name

GROWN-UP TIP The silent e at the end makes the vowel say its name. Cover the e with a finger and read the word, then uncover it and read it again. Five minutes is plenty: stop while it is still fun. Cheer for trying, not just for being right. For heart words, point to the heart letters first, then say the whole word.

1 Review lesson

no new sound today

There is no new letter or sound in this lesson. The sheet below mixes words from earlier lessons. Read words ending in -ild, -ind, -old, -ost, a small set of closed-syllable-looking words where the vowel is actually long, not short.

2 Sound buttons

tap each dot or dash, say the sound, then slide it together

w i n d → ▢

Lesson 3.16 · -ild, -ind, -old, -ost

Level 3

4 Read the sentences

point under each word with your finger

I want the blue one, said Sam.

Sam and his mom go to buy a new bike.

At night, Sam and his dad look up at the moon.

5 Heart words

review

whole earth buy

No new heart word in this lesson.
Here are recent ones to keep fresh.
The ♥ marks the tricky letters.

6 Write

trace the new letters, then write a word the grown-up says

GROWN-UP TIP This is a review. If a word is hard, say the sounds with your child, slide them together, then try again tomorrow. Five minutes is plenty: stop while it is still fun. Cheer for trying, not just for being right.
